Brittany: Attached please find EPA's response to BCP's redline of the AOC. We were able to accept some of the revisions and I tried to note in the document where we would not be accepting the revisions or why we added certain language. In some instances I did leave the redline in so you could see all of the revisions to a particular paragraph.

Please let me know if you have questions or would like to discuss. We are still hoping to have this finalized by September 19.
